Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Welcome to Book Week! Parents, grandparents and friends are all welcome to come and share in the celebrations with us. This is what our week will look like...

Monday

Fiver for a Farmer. Students are to wear 'farm clothes' and donate $5 to support our farmers who are battling through the drought.

Scripture Puppet Show

Tuesday

Dubbo Regional Council's Mayor – Mr Ben Shields will be visiting our school to read one of the shortlisted books to our students at 10.15.

Wednesday

Book Week activities in class with Mrs Cain whilst Mrs Hall and Miss Mills are at training.

Thursday

Constable Glenn from Stuart Town Police Station will come to read to the students at 9.30 AM.

We will be officially opening our Stuart Town Parent Library, having our annual parade, participating in a surprise adventure and a free sausage sizzle for students and families, however; drinks will be $2 each.

Please complete the form at the end of the newsletter for catering purposes.

Friday

Scripture/Music/Tennis

Finalising Book week activities.

Playgroup

Stuart Town/Barnardos Playgroup commences this week. If you have a toddler/pre-schooler please come along at 10am in the school residence to meet some other parents whilst the little people engage in developmental play and further develop important social skills. We are so looking forward to seeing everyone there.

District Carnival

I'd like to thank Paul and Emily for their amazing effort at the Dubbo District Athletics Carnival on Friday. I heard they represented themselves and our school extremely well! I would also like to thank Coll who had the very important job at the carnival as one of the people responsible for running Meet Manager. Another great representative from Stuart Town!

Lunch Orders

There won't be any lunch orders available for purchase this week due to the free sausage sizzle on Thursday BUT we will be cooking a spinach/zucchini slice with a side of green salad. A lot of these products are coming from our very own vegetable garden and we'd like to offer them in lieu of our standard Friday lunch order.

Library

Library will be on Wednesday this week so please remember to bring in any books that need to be returned.

. Thank you
